Cum gratia 5. Th. 1830

Dear Brother

K. Ch. 30 04 05 b

Your two most affectionate and heart cheering letters of the 3^d are rec^d. — You need not fear of my suffering from despondency when you find it in your heart to write thus to me. That you are alive, well, and active in the sphere wherein God hath permitted me to approach you and enjoy your counsel and society — tho by station providentially distant ~~tho~~ many hundred miles, gives me cause for the most heartfelt gratitude.

As it respects the grant of a Township of land to Kenyon College I depend entirely on the Will of Divine Providence. My anxiety I can not conceal while the matter is undetermined. But some little settle the question; yea or nay; and I submit without a murmur simply because it is God will that it should be so.

My wife consoles me as you do.
Her language is "don't mind it husband. He in those narrow land the cornerstone of Kingston College will find means where withal to place the Cap Stones — and ~~he~~ will do it with grace shows of Grace, Grace unto it!"

You ask me if I want to see Mr. Marriott's Pamphlet?
He wrote me that he had sent me one and this you mention as having been sent you by Mr. Kip & I think must be the same. Pray let me see it.
I am every day better altho as before I can take little rest in bed. This makes the night rather as pass on but very heavily.

This moment it is precisely 12 o'clock one in the morning. I regret that mail of this town closes in the evening so that this can not reach you till Thursday.

I think I will take your note + answer it Mr. Rame and Ph. Ls. - But not till a day or two.

If Mr. Hayne & some one so violently against me, will not that fierce minded Webster take up the Club once more. ^{It} ^{is} it be to defend a College yet the consequences may be more worthy of his benevolent character than all he has done before.

Yours Truly
Ph. Chase
